McDonald's organises Extempore Speech Contest to mark Teachers' Day

Jodhpur, September 5, 2011

In an effort to recognise the role that teachers play in the delivery of quality basic education in the country, McDonald's organised an Extempore Speech Competition for the school children on the occasion of Teachers' Day in Jodhpur. Through the competition, McDonald's made an attempt to encourage high school students to creatively express how much they honour and value their teachers in shaping their lives.

The competition was attended by faculty members and students of various schools of Jodhpur. Over 25 number of students between eighth to tenth standard participated in the competition and shared their thoughts on the topic 'Role of Teachers in our lives'.

The first prize in the competition was won by Miss Lakshaya, the second prize went to Master Tej Singh and Master Akshay stood third, all from Central Modern School, Jodhpur. The winners were awarded with certificates by the Chief Guest Ramesh Mathur, Chief Medical Officer, Jodhpur. The teachers present were also felicitated with appreciation letters acknowledging their service to the society.
